18th NATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

... from the AWSA President

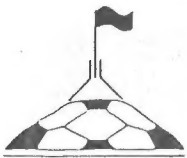

I would like to welcome players, officials and spectators to the 18th National Championships held by the Australian Women's Soccer Association. In doing so I would like to congratulate the ACT Women's Soccer Association on their hosting of the championships. I am aware of the work that has gone into the organisation and I am sure that this work will culminate in a successful tournament. Particular thanks should go to the Organising Chairperson, Cass Hampton.

From the players point of view these championships should be seen as the beginning of our quest for inclusion in the 1995 World Cup. Rather than look back at our recent loss in the World Cup Qualifying Rounds with dismay we should begin afresh for the new campaign. Steve Darby has now resigned as National Coach, leaving our national team a significantly better prepared group than when he took over the position. John Reid has accepted a two year term as National Coach with an option for a further two years and it will be his responsibility to choose and develop a team which will surpass our expectations of the past. This team will reflect his own view of the game but I have no doubt that it will also merge the successes of the past with youth for the future. John will receive all the assistance that the Board of the AWSA can offer. I assume that players and State officials will support him as well.

When we review 1991 in the future, I believe that it will be remembered more as the year when gender equity became part of soccer in Australia than for any other reason. Governments and National and State Federations are fast realising that soccer (and other sports) can only truly serve the community when they treat men and women, girls and boys equally. It is my belief that soccer is a sport which can be played with equal skill, grace and athleticism by both males and females and my aim is that equity should be both the aim and reality of all those involved in the development of the game.

To all those taking part in the Championships, can I wish you all the very best during the competition. Whether you are winners or losers at these championships you are the elite from your State and you can feel justifiable pride in that. I trust that you will participate over the next week with that pride and in a spirit of friendly competition.

Dennis O'Brien

... from the Executive Director ...

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

Two years ago, the organisation of the national championships was disrupted by the pilot's dispute and the ACT Women's Soccer Association was asked to convene the tournament within two weeks of the event. Many will recall that every State travelled to Canberra by road, rail or sea in order to compete.

Eight States are competing in the 18th National Championship. It is unfortunate that the Northern Territory will not be represented for the second year running. The closeness of last year's championships, with NSW and Northern NSW being declared joint champions, should augur well for great competition this year.

As the national team will not be heading for China to compete in the 1st FIFA World Championship, newly appointed national coach, John Reid will be aiming to select a development squad from which to build a team for the 1995 World Cup campaign.

It is proposed that the squad's first commitment will be against New Zealand to help the Kiwi's prepare for China. This squad should also form the basis of an under 23 team to compete in the 4th Oceania Shield next June in Papua New Guinea.

On behalf of the AWSA I would like to thank Cass Hampton and the ACTWSA for their work in organising the championships. I hope the competition is fair and unpredictable. Good luck to all players and officials.

Heather Reid
Executive Director

... from the host President

Women's soccer has come a long way since my first competition game with the fabulous Richmond Rovers in Lismore, NSW in the mid 70's.

I see the 90's as a period of provocative thinking and adjustments to the conventional 'modus operandi' of many Women's Soccer Associations - ACT included.

The recent tournament with Malmo and the World Cup Qualifiers have done a lot to raise the profile of women's soccer in Australia. Bouquets to all involved in both of these events - particularly the latter.

This tournament is the 3rd to be hosted by the ACTWSA in the past 8 years and we hope it's our best yet. In the ACT we are striving for the development of competitive competitions for all who want to play soccer and are working toward the achievement of administrative excellence. We believe that if this can be achieved, at both Association and Club level, the objectives we have laid out in our development plan will have a starting chance for fruition.

A warm welcome to all from the ACT. I hope you have a successful, competitive and memorable championship and that your stay in Canberra is one that will be fondly remembered for years to come.
